

HORSE PAINTINGS NEWSLETTER

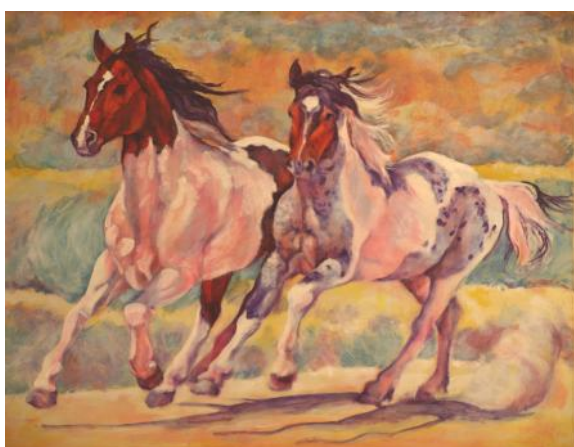

January 2012

Wild Mustang Mares, 12x48", oil on masonite, © Karen Brenner 2011

Paintings Feature Wild Mustangs Heading Home

It was an exhilarating experience to get to witness the mustangs being released into their desert home at the conclusion of the wild horse roundup in Rock Springs, Wyoming, this past summer. These first three wild mustang paintings all feature wild mustangs returning to the high desert. PAINT LOVERS: Check out the blue roan paint stallion in the painting on the right! He's the most unique colored horse I've ever seen!

Paint Stallion and Blue Roan Paint Stallion Mustangs, 22x28", oil on masonite, © Karen Brenner 2011

You will find details about the roundup and photos from my trip on my Wild Horse Roundup blog.

Wild Mustang Stallions Free Again, 18x48", oil on masonite, © Karen Brenner 2011

Tuscani Dundee – Horse Paintings Ornament of the Month for January

This painting of Welsh Cobb stallion Tuscani Dundee is part of my Beautiful Horses of Indiana series. He made me a Welsh Cobb fan forever! And now his painting appears on the January Ornament of the Month.

Click here to for more information.

Wisconsin—You're NEXT... for the Beautiful Horses series!

It's 2012, and time to pick a new state to visit for my Beautiful Horses series.... And it's going to be WISCONSIN! So if you know of a beautiful horse who lives in Wisconsin, take a moment and complete the nomination form. New this year—individual AND groups of horses can be nominated! I real enjoy painting both! Here's a link to the Beautiful Horses of Wisconsin Nomination Form.

Be sure to tell your friends!

See more Horse Paintings by Karen Brenner on her website.

Questions or comments? Email Karen at kmbrenner@hotmail.com

To unsubscribe from this newsletter, email us at kmbrenner@hotmail.com with "Unsubscribe" in the subject line.